

Main Types of Printing Worksheet-

ANSWER KEY

- 1- The oldest form of printing which is produced from a raised surface. An image is created by a process where protruding surface faces of the printing plate or block are inked.
- 2- Letterpress & Flexography
- 3- Letterpress uses lead type casts to print where flexography uses flexible plastic or synthetic plates to print.
- 4- Wedding Invitations, Thank you Cards, Return Addresses on Envelopes, Notepads, Paper Bags, Stickers, Milk Jugs.
- 5- Printing is produced from a level surface and works under the principle that water and ink don't mix.
- 6- Posters, books, newspapers, magazines.
- 7- Any technology that receives electronic files and uses ink, toner or ink jet to print. For example your printer that is connected to your computer uses ink or toner to print.
- 8- Printing is produced from a sunken surface etched surface.
- 9- Gravure
- 10- 100,000
- 11- Large circulation magazines, mail order catalogs and high quality newspapers
- 12- Shirts, cups, drinking glasses, banners